Recognizing the Extraordinary Courage of Victims and Survivors of the Holocaust

January 27, 2024

During the Holocaust, the Nazis went to great lengths to dehumanize their victims. Defying the Nazis took extraordinary courage.

In 2024, the United Nations is paying tribute to the bravery of all those who stood up to the Nazis, despite the grave risks. We will honour their legacy with their remarkable stories and history. In the memory of all victims and survivors, we will step up our efforts to counter Holocaust denial, antisemitism and racism.

UTFA joins the United Nations in paying tribute to the bravery of all those who stood up to the Nazis despite the grave risks and to all those who continue to stand up against racism in all its forms including antisemitism and anti-Palestinian racism.
