Ongoing Negotiations

July 3, 2025

Dear colleagues,

Earlier this morning, Arbitrator Gedalof issued his award, resolving all outstanding disputes between UTFA and the University of Toronto Administration (“the Administration”) with respect to salary, benefits, and workload for the period July 1, 2023, to June 30, 2026 (with the exception of Across-the-Board (ATB) salary adjustments for the period July 1, 2025, to June 30, 2026 which will be negotiated this fall).

According to Vice-President, Salary, Benefits, Pension and Workload and Co-Lead Negotiator, Jun Nogami, “We are pleased that the salary award is at least in the range of current trends in the sector. However, the substance of the award falls well short of ensuring that our current salary, benefits, and workload reflect the unparalleled value that UTFA members bring to our University. The total lack of advancement on workload matters and childcare benefits is particularly disappointing. Also, this award did not provide any benefit improvements for our retired members. Our work continues!”

Arbitrator Gedalof’s award is in addition to the major breakthroughs UTFA achieved in bargaining earlier without the need for arbitration.

Below is a high level summary of the contents of the award. UTFA will provide a further critical analysis of the award in the coming weeks.

SALARY

Arbitrator Gedalof awarded salary adjustments as follows:

- Effective July 1, 2023: 3.5%
- Effective July 1, 2024: 2.5%

The Arbitrator confirmed that ATB increases would apply to base salaries, salary floors, overload stipends, PTR increments and breakpoints.

The retroactive pay increases noted above are expected to appear in your September pay run.

The Arbitrator acknowledged that UTFA members are entitled to full inflationary wage catch-up but declined to fully close the remaining gap.

In UTFA's view, Arbitrator Gedalof's assurances regarding catch-up are at odds with his awarded outcomes and UTFA will continue to fight to have the inflationary wage gap closed. UTFA is currently in negotiations with the Administration for wage increases for the period of July 1, 2025, to June 30, 2026.

UTFA will provide a further update on the status of these negotiations by the end of October 2025.

BENEFITS

The Arbitrator made two modest improvements to existing benefits: LTD coverage and PERA.

Long-Term Disability Coverage

As a result of the award, maximum earnings covered under the LTD plan have been increased to $200,000 (effective September 1, 2025).

PERA

Effective July 1, 2025, the following increases to PERA are in effect:

Pre-tenure faculty, pre-promotion teaching stream, full-time continuing pre-permanent status librarians

- Full-Time - ~~$2,000~~ $2,350
- Part-Time ($\geq 50\%$) - ~~\$1,600~~ \$1,885
- Part-Time (20% to 49%) - ~~$1,000~~ $1,175

Tenured faculty, continuing teaching stream, all other librarians, contract-limited term assignment (CLTAs), limited-term lecturers

- Full-Time - ~~$1,700~~ $2,000
- Part-Time ($\geq 50\%$) - ~~\$1,360~~ \$1,600
- Part-Time (20% to 49%) - ~~$850~~ $1,000

WORKLOAD

The Arbitrator dismissed UTFA's workload proposals.

The award demonstrates that a disconnect persists between the views of labour arbitrators and the needs and expectations of UTFA members. The current system continues to fail our members in terms of workload, and the pace of change is unnecessarily slow.

Bargaining Update: Major Breakthroughs and Increased Membership Engagement!

Major Breakthroughs. Following 5.5 days of mediation, UTFA's Negotiating Team reached an historic agreement with the senior Administration to make significant improvements to Article 7, the grievance and arbitration process, of the Memorandum of Agreement \(MoA\). The parties also negotiated a Sexual Violence Policy Letter of Agreement \(LoA\). Both agreements were ratified by Council at our January 30th, 2025 meeting!

Membership Engagement. UTFA's Bargaining Update Town Halls for active members and retirees on January 20th and 21st were well attended, lively, and interactive. Our detailed bargaining update and Q&A were also very well received. On January 23rd, the UTFA Negotiating Team sought, through a "flash" survey, additional feedback and guidance from our members regarding 5 principles for prioritizing health benefits improvements. This significant membership engagement and support not only shapes and informs our proposals, it strengthens our positions as well.

Upcoming Arbitration. Salary, Benefits, and Workload issues that remain unresolved will be determined by Arbitrator Eli Gedalof. We are now preparing UTFA's brief for our first arbitration date, scheduled for Sunday, March 16, 2025 (likely to be followed by an additional hearing date TBA). We anticipate receiving Arbitrator Gedalof's award before the end of this academic year, i.e. by June 30th.

Grievance and arbitration process:

There are several excellent substantive and procedural changes, but the short version is that the archaic, uncollegial, and unbalanced process for resolving grievances and accessing third party arbitration has been significantly improved. Workplace grievances can now be heard much faster, and if they are not resolved may be adjudicated by a professional arbitrator who has significant powers under the Ontario Labour Relations Act. This is a huge improvement over the current system. Once Governing Council ratifies it, the agreed-upon language will be enshrined in the Memorandum of Agreement. The details of the changes can be found here.

Workplace investigations and sexual violence policy:

UTFA has been seeking to address concerns with the process of workplace investigations conducted under the Sexual Violence Policy for almost 8 years (since 2017 - details here). In response to a Fall 2024 Association grievance that identified major, serious, concerns in the Administration's conducting of workplace investigations, the parties reached an agreement to enter into a fact-finding and facilitation process. The aim is to improve members' rights within the Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment and to develop a protocol to ensure that members are protected by reasonable, appropriate, and procedurally fair workplace investigations. This is a significant step in the right direction for creating a safe and fair workplace for all members. The details can be found here.

Our thanks should go to the President, the Vice-President, Grievances, the Legal & Advice Team, UTFA administrative staff, and ultimately the UTFA Negotiating Team for achieving these historic gains.

January 20, 2025

Your UTFA Negotiating Team continues to be engaged in formal, generally productive, mediation with the senior Administration, seeking to reach a new deal on salary, benefits, workload, and some policy issues for faculty and librarians. Our last agreement expired on June 30, 2023.

- Well over a year ago, UTFA's Team tabled, and Council approved, a slate of detailed proposals consistent with members' priorities and its bargaining mandate. The Administration's engagement on these proposals varied from collegial cooperation to, in some cases, presumptive dismissal (for more detailed information on this please consider attending the Town Hall meetings).
- Along with an arbitration hearing commencing on Feb 10th, the parties have one more mediation date scheduled on Jan. 23rd. UTFA will continue to update you on our progress at mediation.
- We continue to have a high level of engagement between the parties regarding proposed changes to the grievance and arbitration process.

- We've reached an agreement on access to Microsoft Office 365 for Retirees in the form of a Letter of Understanding \(LoU\), which Council subsequently ratified. This is great news for our recently retired (and soon-to-be-retired) members!

Meet your UTFA Negotiators at our upcoming interactive Bargaining Update Town Hall meetings (via Zoom) - one for active (not-yet-retired) faculty members and librarians January 20th and one for retirees on January 21st. See here for more details.

You're Invited! UTFA Bargaining Update - Retiree Town Hall on January 21st

Dear Retired Colleagues,

You're warmly invited to attend our interactive Bargaining Update - Retiree Town Hall.

UTFA's negotiators will provide you with a Bargaining update, including on the agreement we have reached with the senior Administration regarding retirees' access to Microsoft Office 365.

Questions may be sent in advance when you register, or be raised, time permitting, at the Town Hall.

Date and time:

Tuesday, January 21, 2025, 1:30 - 3:00 p.m. Via Zoom

RSVP and Register here.

Sincerely,

Terezia Zorić, UTFA President & Co-Chief Negotiator

Ariel Katz, UTFA Vice-President, Salary, Benefits, Pensions, and Workload & Co-Chief Negotiator

Raymond Kwong, UTFA, Chair, Retired Members Committee and retiree representative on UTFA's Negotiating Team

October 3, 2024

Nearly sixteen months after bargaining commenced, UTFA's Salary, Benefits, and Workload Negotiating Team began formal mediation with the senior Administration, seeking to reach a new deal for faculty and librarians. Our last agreement expired on June 30, 2023.

- UTFA's Team has tabled a slate of detailed proposals on compensation, benefits, workload, member rights, and bargaining and dispute resolution consistent with members' priorities and its bargaining mandate. The Administration has only superficially \(if at all\) engaged with many substantial matters of concern to the membership. For an overview of the status of UTFA's proposals and the Administration's levels of engagement with them, see here.
- We expect to go to binding arbitration to deal with unresolved issues in the New Year.

Fall Council Update from UTFA (on Bargaining)

1. Arbitration Award and Town Hall Meetings

Great news-if you haven't heard already! UTFA's Negotiating Team was successful in achieving a 7% Across-The-Board (ATB) pay increase. This increase is in addition to the 3% ATB increases already achieved during the three years of the 2020-2023 Agreement with the Administration, resulting in a cumulative total of 10% ATB. The 7% ATB increase is retroactive to July 1, 2022. This is the highest pay increase in the Canadian University sector. Progress through the ranks (PTR) increments and breakpoints will also be increased by an additional 7% retroactive to July 1, 2023. A more detailed written analysis of the award and contrasting UTFA and Administration positions can be found here.

The Administration confirmed that our colleagues will receive their retroactive payments in the November 28, 2023 pay run.

We are holding Town Hall meetings to discuss what we achieved in the recently concluded round of bargaining, what we were unable to achieve because of the limitations of our Memorandum of Agreement with the Administration, and your priorities for the current round (that will begin July 1, 2023). The first two virtual Town Halls were extremely well-attended and made space for enthusiastic discussion of a better future for UTFA. In the coming weeks, we will begin to schedule a series of hybrid and in-person department/constituency/membership meetings.

2. Membership Survey Initial Results

More than 1,100 members completed our August-September 2023 Bargaining Survey! Negotiating improvements in salary (ATB and PTR), workload, job security, housing supports, and other benefits remain huge priorities for our colleagues—as does protecting equal access to health benefits for active members and retirees. Hear more about what members are saying at upcoming constituency and departmental visits. Join those visits with your colleagues to learn more about your individual issues and interests and to discuss collective solutions in bargaining. Dates TBD soon.

3. Update on Bargaining and Information Request

UTFA submitted a disclosure request to the Administration, seeking information that is required to negotiate on your behalf on a range of issues from compensation to workload protections and is routinely provided as part of collective bargaining in certified associations. The Administration agreed to provide this information in our Memorandum (see Article 11), yet is not forthcoming or responsive to our requests. To pursue this necessary information, your bargaining team gave the Administration notice that if they did not meet the request by October 20, 2023, we would ask Arbitrator Eli Gedalof to issue an order. The Administration provided some information by the deadline, but was still only partially responsive. We have asked Arbitrator Gedalof to issue an order to compel the Administration to comply with our request.

Some key unresolved bargaining issues and the parties' positions

Issue	Administration Position	UTFA Position
Reining in excessive teaching workloads.	If faculty teach four courses and have 12 hours of in-class time per week, that is only 30% of a 40-hour work week, which leaves 70% of their time free for other aspects of their workload, including scholarship and service. Therefore, Teaching Stream faculty already have reasonable time (as stated in policy) for scholarship, including during teaching-intensive semesters.	This is a gross underestimate of the amount of time required to provide high quality teaching—including time-consuming course preparation and administration, email correspondence, grading, office hours, student accommodations, etc. This underestimation by the Administration is particularly problematic for the Teaching Stream, where teaching loads are higher than that of their Tenure Stream colleagues. Where teaching loads are excessive, there is not reasonable time to engage in scholarship.

The need for clear and reasonable workload distributions and assignments.

While the Tenure Stream is normally evaluated on a 40/40/20 basis (40% research, 40% teaching, 20% service) distribution of effort (DOE) during PTR, this DOE has no relevance to the faculty member's actual distribution of workload. A similar principle holds for the Teaching Stream.

Faculty and Librarians have 3 principal components to their workload. Each component is deserving of a clear, transparent, reasonable, and equitable amount of dedicated time in one's workload assignment. It is only fair that one gets evaluated in a way that corresponds to one's actual workload and that colleagues can be assured that "comparable work [is] weighed in the same manner". It is also entirely reasonable that faculty members know the balance of responsibilities between teaching, scholarship and service that is expected of them, to allow them to appropriately plan their work.

Librarian Research Days

Librarians should not be granted a greater number of Research and Professional Development Days because not all Librarians use all the days already allowed.

The number of days currently granted to UTFA Librarians without special permission is 14, and this is fewer than the number granted at many peer institutions in Ontario.

Need for a minimum level of teaching assistant (TA) support.

There is no need to have a minimum level of (TA) support guaranteed across the university; the allocation of TA hours should be determined only at the unit level.

There should be a minimum level of guaranteed TA support across the University that depends on several factors including class size.

UTFA Reaches Three-Year Agreement with Administration

On January 25, 2022, the UTFA Negotiating Team for Salary, Benefits, Pensions, and Workload (SBPW) and the University Administration reached an agreement regarding the three-year period July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2023. This agreement has now been ratified by UTFA Council and the U of T Administration.

Under the terms of the deal, salary and benefits improvements for the first two years, ending June 30, 2022, have been settled. Terms for the third year, ending June 30, 2023, are subject to arbitration.

Bargaining in this round was constrained by Bill 124 (the Protecting a Sustainable Public Sector for Future Generations Act, 2019) which restricts salary increases to 1% per year during the three-year period covered by this agreement. Furthermore, the legislation puts a limit of 1% per year on increases to total compensation which also limits benefits improvements.

Updates on Bargaining, the COVID LOU, and Health and Safety

Below are three brief updates: on salaries, benefits, and workload bargaining; the COVID LOU; and Health and Safety. Several important meetings on each of these items are scheduled in the coming days and we will write you more detailed communiqués by the end of next week.

Salary, Benefits, Pension, and Workload Bargaining Update

We are pleased to announce that UTFA has reached a tentative Memorandum of Settlement with the University Administration on Salary, Benefits, Pensions, and Workload matters. This agreement is subject to ratification both by UTFA Council and by the University Administration. As per UTFA's governance structure, the tentative agreement will be presented for ratification to UTFA Council at a special meeting on Wednesday, February 2, 2022. We anticipate that the Administration will also confirm their ratification next week. If ratified by both parties, the full agreement accompanied by a summary will immediately be made available to the whole UTFA membership.

Key win on PTR

Good news! Yesterday we wrote to you about the ongoing decision by U of T's Senior Administration to withhold your July 1, 2020 PTR (Progress Through the Ranks) increase. The response from our membership was immediate and overwhelmingly supportive of UTFA's position as expressed in our PTR petition.

Last night, following UTFA's email and petition, we received an offer from the Administration that remained silent on two key features of how PTR will be calculated. Earlier today we wrote to the Administration for clarification and just received a response confirming that 2019-2020 PTR breakpoints and increments will be calculated using breakpoints and increments increased by 2% from those used in the June 30, 2019 PTR exercise.

Where is your July 1, 2020 PTR?

This is an update on UTFA's efforts to challenge the Administration's withholding of your 2019-2020 PTR (Progress Through the Ranks). As we previously communicated, UTFA recently took the Administration to arbitration to challenge their decision to withhold last year's PTR increase. Unfortunately, the arbitrator ruled that although "there is substantial evidence that PTR has previously been regularly and routinely implemented prior to the conclusion of [Article 6 \[of our Memorandum\]](#) negotiations" the Administration is not required to provide faculty and librarians at U of T with PTR on July 1st on an annual basis. Rather, PTR must be negotiated in every round of bargaining.
