Urban Alliance Human Rights Forum: Gender, Carding & Racial Profiling

The Urban Alliance on Race Relations is a non-profit charitable organization working with community, public & private sectors to provide educational programs & research addressing racism.

To commemorate this year's Human Rights Day, a panel of legal experts and human rights advocates will discuss the current status of carding in the city and the impact of racial profiling on racialized women and gender diverse people.

Sponsored by the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto.

Panelists:

Andrea Anderson, Criminal Defense Lawyer

Fathima Cader, Canadian Association of Muslim Women in Law

Laurie Hermiston, Native Women's Resource Centre of Toronto

Lorelei King, Sherbourne Health Centre

Nana Yanful, Human Rights Lawyer and Racial Justice Advocate

Moderator: Brittany Andrew-Amofah, Political & Civic Engagement Advocate
