WEBINAR: Racial Capitalism and the COVID-19 Catastrophe

June 23, 2020

In the second Right to Health WEB-IN , we unpack what's led to the appalling inequalities in COVID-19 outcomes across many social fault lines, but perhaps most glaringly along the lines of race in America.

We hear from the following academic and social movement leaders:

* Dr. Mary Bassett - Director of FXB Center for Health and Human Rights, Harvard
* Luz Zambrano - Coordinadora General, El Centro Cooperativo de Desarrollo y Solidaridad (CCDS) East Boston
* Jaron Benjamin - VP Community Mobilization and National Advocacy, Housing Works
* Professor Ruha Benjamin - Associate Professor of African American Studies, Princeton University
