

OVERDUE NOTICE:

POLICIES FOR LIBRARIANS

The policies governing appointments and promotion for librarians at the University of Toronto are now 37 years old. They were written in 1978, and never agreed to by UTFA.

UTFA is calling for talks with the University Administration to revise the Policies for Librarians. It's overdue.

To ensure an inclusive, informed process, the UTFA Librarians Committee is hosting two town hall meetings to share information, gather input, and build momentum.

Join us on one of these dates to have your say and find out more. Please RSVP to Chris Penn at 416-978-4976 or faculty@utfa.org.
